

STAFF ETHICS/CONFLICT OF INTEREST

An employee speaking or writing as a citizen must be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but his/her special position in the community carries special obligations. The employee must remember that the public may judge the profession and institution by his/her utterances. Hence, the employee must, at all times, be accurate, exercise appropriate restraint, show respect for the opinion of others, and make every effort to indicate that he/she is not a school spokesperson.

Employees of the district will not endorse products or services in such a manner that will identify him/her as an employee of the district.
